

2010 RACMSA Rally of Scotland – Dates confirmed!

The dates of the 2010 Royal Automobile Club Motor Sports Association Rally of Scotland have now been confirmed as Friday 15 – Sunday 17 October.

Running a month earlier than in 2009, and on a Friday – Sunday format, this year’s event will again be decided by three days of competitive driving over timed Special Stages on closed Forestry Commission Scotland gravel roads in Stirling and Perth and Kinross. The route will also feature a ceremonial start, central service park and ceremonial finish.

Chief Executive of event organiser, International Motor Sports Ltd, Andrew Coe, comments: “We are delighted to be returning to the stunning landscapes and historic venues of Scotland and are hoping that the slightly earlier date will mean more daylight hours for competitive rallying as well as providing the perfect showcase for Scotland’s outstanding natural landscape. With year one of the event under our belts, we are working with Event Scotland, Stirling and Perth and Kinross to deliver a world-class motorsport event which Scotland can be truly proud of.”

Details of the route and spectator ticket information will be announced in mid-Spring.
